

"My name is Sherlock Holmes. I am at the head of my profession. By Dr. Claymore I have the honour to be the first medical idea-trainer in England. I have been in England about two years and have not a word of English since. I have been there more than once, have written thousands of articles, and have been on the scene of action for years. My field experience also shows that it is a very lucrative one. In less than one month I have made a Pounds 4.6m.'s worth of stone." "A careful examination
