

"I am certain that there is no crime, but I fear that there is. And where is the cover? I have a rough sketch of the condition of the place, but I can deduce nothing from his statement." "What is the name of the official who gave the name to the man who was then in custody?" "My name is Lowell Whitney, and I am the keeper of record of the property which was in the custody of the prisoner. I understand that the prisoner, you understand, was a gentleman named William Merry, who had access to th
